The Mystery Files videos on

The Mystery Files (Apartment 11 Productions) follows Kyla and E.B., who have inherited some mixed-up files from their Great Aunt Hermione. The files are filled with seemingly unrelated objects, but are actually clues that reveal surprising facts about the past and how it connects to present times. This series includes 13 videos which are 22 minutes each, and are aimed at students in Grade 1-3.

The Mystery of Top Hats, Timber and Dried Fish
What do dried fish, fur, and an old ax head have in common? They discover that lumber, cod, and fur were important commodities that drew Europeans to North America.

Mystery of the Working Animal
The kids discover that many animal jobs have been replaced by technology, so now the animals we own are usually pets. Instead of having them work for us, now we often work for them!

The Mystery of the Underground Railroad
In this episode, the kids investigate the Underground Railroad in Canada.

The Mystery of the Big Deal
The gang realizes that contracts take many forms, but no matter what they look like, they’re all about keeping your word.
